

Robert M. Parker, Jr.'s

The
WINE
ADVOCATE®

June 2005
Issue # 159

Alamos Chardonnay 2004

Nicolás Catena's Alamos brand has fashioned another fabulous value with its smoky white fruit-scented 2004 Chardonnay. Medium-bodied and elegant, this wine coats the tasters palate with layers of well-focused, rich, plump apples and pears that are intermingled with notes of buttered toast. In addition, its well-balanced, highly expressive and refined personality has outstanding concentration and length.

89 Points

